

SMART GROWTH, GREEN BUILDING and other OXYMORONS

A presentation by

Jane Powell

“the bad girl of bungalow writing”

Saturday, October 2, 2010, 10:00AM

at the historic

Heights Community Center

823 Buena Vista Dr. SE

(1/2 block south of Coal Ave.; 1 block east of University Blvd.)

Tickets: $10.00 at the door (opens at 9:30AM)

• Continental Breakfast •

- Bring your Jane Powell Bungalow book(s) for signing
- Raffle: win a house restoration consultation with Jane
- Find out how preserving historic buildings supports local economics and sustainability goals.
- Hear how nationwide, historic buildings are being demolished at an astonishing rate and what we can do about it.

Jane Powell is a restoration consultant, hands-on house restorer, entertaining speaker and author of six bungalow restoration books. She lives in Oakland, CA. She writes for many magazines and publications including American Bungalow, the San Francisco Chronicle Magazine and the Oakland Tribune. Appearances on TV include Curb Appeal (HGTV) and Ultimate Kitchens (the Food Network).

Sponsored by the

Silver Hill Neighborhood Association and
The Albuquerque Historical Society

For more information visit www.silverhillnet.com or call 242-8192